The Texas trees Foundation released its Urban Heat Management Study in 2017 and noted that fact that Dallas is heating up faster than every city in the country except Phoenix. The study suggests tree planting and additional green space is needed to reverse these effects. The deck park will create more than five acres of brand-new green space over a man-made concrete canyon.

The North Central Texas Council of Governments (NCTCOG) has committed $9 million to engineering enhanced connectivity from the Park to the future high-speed rail station, the Trinity Strand Trail, and the Loop Trail. Projects include hike and bike trails, pedestrian-friendly bridges, and streetcar access. The census tracts adjacent to the deck park are some of the most impoverished in the country. The adjacent zip codes, 75203, 75208, 75216 and 75224, are areas that lack basic resources like grocery stores, health clinics, and employment centers. Capital investments taking place on the west side of I-35E - such as Bishop Arts and the Jefferson Boulevard corridor are slow to reach I-35 itself, and provide limited benefits to the disconnected citizens on the east side. This new, iconic Deck Park will support economic development, the environment, education, and community access.

NEW CONVENTION CENTER

*0.75 MILES NORTHWEST OF SUBJECT PROPERTY

Dallas is barreling ahead with a game-changing $2 billion Convention Center Project that will also create a whole new entertainment district in the heart of the city, allowing the destination to accommodate a much larger set of convention clients.

Approved in February by the Dallas City Council and slated to break ground in 2024, with completion expected for 2029, the convention center will be adjacent to the current Kay Bailey Hutchison Convention Center Dallas and offer a total of 2.5 million square feet of space. The existing convention center will continue to operate during construction.

DISCLAIMER

APPROVED BY THE TEXAS REAL ESTATE COMMISSION FOR VOLUNTARY USE.

TEXAS LAW REQUIRES ALL REAL ESTATE LICENSEES TO GIVE THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION ABOUT BROKERAGE SERVICES TO PROSPECTIVE BUYERS, TENANTS, SELLERS AND LANDLORDS. (01A TREC NO. OP-K)

INFORMATION ABOUT BROKERAGE SERVICES:

Before working with a real estate broker, you should know that the duties of a broker depend on whom the broker represents. If you are a prospective seller or landlord (owner) or a prospective buyer or tenant (buyer), you should know that the broker who lists the property for sale or lease is the owner's agent. A broker who acts as a subagent represents the owner in cooperation with the listing broker. A broker who acts as a buyer's agent represents the buyer. A broker may act as an intermediary between the parties if the parties consent in writing. A broker can assist you in locating a property, preparing a contract or lease, or obtaining financing without representing you. A broker is obligated by law to treat you honestly.

IF THE BROKER REPRESENTS THE OWNER:

The broker becomes the owner's agent by entering into an agreement with the owner, usually through a written - listing agreement, or by agreeing to act as a subagent by accepting an offer of subagency from the listing broker. A subagent may work in a different real estate office. A listing broker or subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first. The buyer should not tell the owner's agent anything the buyer would not want the owner to know because an owner's agent must disclose to the owner any material information known to the agent.

IF THE BROKER REPRESENTS THE BUYER:

The broker becomes the buyer's agent by entering into an agreement to represent the buyer, usually through a written buyer representation agreement. A buyer's agent can assist the owner but does not represent the owner and must place the interests of the buyer first. The owner should not tell a buyer's agent anything the owner would not want the buyer to know because a buyer's agent must disclose to the buyer any material information known to the agent.

IF THE BROKER ACTS AS AN INTERMEDIARY:

A broker may act as an intermediary between the parties if the broker complies with The Texas Real Estate License Act. The broker must obtain the written consent of each party to the transaction to act as an intermediary. The written consent must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. The broker is required to treat each party honestly and fairly and to comply with The Texas Real Estate License Act. A broker who acts as an intermediary in a transaction:

- (1) shall treat all parties honestly;
- (2) may not disclose that the owner will accept a price less than the asking price unless authorized in writing to do so by the owner; buyer: and
- (3) may not disclose that the buyer will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer unless authorized in writing to do so by the buyer; and
- (4) may not disclose any confidential information or any information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose unless authorized in writing to disclose the information or required to do so by The Texas Real Estate License Act or a court order or if the information materially relates to the condition of the property. With the parties' consent, a broker acting as an intermediary between the parties may appoint a person who is licensed under The Texas Real Estate License Act and associated with the broker to communicate with and carry out instructions of one party and another person who is licensed under that Act and associated with the broker to communicate with and carry out instructions of the other party.

IF YOU CHOOSE TO HAVE A BROKER REPRESENT YOU:

You should enter into a written agreement with the broker that clearly establishes the broker's obligations and your obligations. The agreement should state how and by whom the broker will be paid. You have the right to choose the type of representation, if any, you wish to receive. Your payment of a fee to a broker does not necessarily establish that the broker represents you. If you have any questions regarding the duties and responsibilities of the broker, you should resolve those questions before proceeding.
