DFW IOS MARKET OVERVIEW

Dallas/Fort Worth's strategic central location has driven one of the most impressive industrial real estate markets in the United States. As such, the metro is home to some of the strongest industrial activity in the country with consistently high occupancy, absorption and well-supported rent growth.

The metro's industrial strength is based upon its central location within the US, business friendly tax environment, access to highly skilled labor, and premier infrastructure— namely, the presence of four major intermodal terminals, DFW International Airport, Alliance Airport, and one of the most developed highway networks in the nation, rendering it a major inland port.

These key factors have driven current construction activity soaring to new heights with 30.1 MSF of industrial space currently underway as of Q4 2023. Speculative sites account for the majority of product under construction which directly affects the IOS market in DFW. Speculative developments of big box industrial typically maximize the amount of building square footage on their sites, resulting in many projects that have not delivered an appropriate amount of trailer storage to satisfy eventual tenant needs. With the majority of the leasing demand for these spaces being led by ecommerce and logistics occupiers, there is a very real unmet need for additional space to store trucks, trailers, and equipment.

Another key factor that is driving the demand for IOS sites in DFW is that material suppliers, equipment suppliers, and concrete batch plant operators are running at full capacity to produce enough material to match the demand for all the new construction. All of these businesses require trucks to be constantly on the road and, coupled with rising fuel costs, having a secure place to store vehicle or equipment at night is more mission critical than ever. Per Jim Ward, President of the Truckload Carriers Association, "With only one truck parking space for every 11 drivers on the road, and over 85% of drivers citing parking as the #1 cause of stress at work, alleviating the truck parking shortage will help retain drivers and prevent the driver shortage from getting worse." Commonly truck stops are viewed as a premises liability for companies with the most common obstacles being difficult parking locations resulting in high-risk accident areas, extremely limited personal vehicle parking for drivers and restricted ability to enter and exit the truck stop, a key obstacle for distribution.

DISCLAIMER

APPROVED BY THE TEXAS REAL ESTATE COMMISSION FOR VOLUNTARY USE.

TEXAS LAW REQUIRES ALL REAL ESTATE LICENSEES TO GIVE THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION ABOUT BROKERAGE SERVICES TO PROSPECTIVE BUYERS, TENANTS, SELLERS AND LANDLORDS. (01A TREC NO. OP-K)

INFORMATION ABOUT BROKERAGE SERVICES:

Before working with a real estate broker, you should know that the duties of a broker depend on whom the broker represents. If you are a prospective seller or landlord (owner) or a prospective buyer or tenant (buyer), you should know that the broker who lists the property for sale or lease is the owner's agent. A broker who acts as a subagent represents the owner in cooperation with the listing broker. A broker who acts as a buyer's agent represents the buyer. A broker may act as an intermediary between the parties if the parties consent in writing. A broker can assist you in locating a property, preparing a contract or lease, or obtaining financing without representing you. A broker is obligated by law to treat you honestly.

IF THE BROKER REPRESENTS THE OWNER:

The broker becomes the owner's agent by entering into an agreement with the owner, usually through a written - listing agreement, or by agreeing to act as a subagent by accepting an offer of subagency from the listing broker. A subagent may work in a different real estate office. A listing broker or subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first. The buyer should not tell the owner's agent anything the buyer would not want the owner to know because an owner's agent must disclose to the owner any material information known to the agent.

IF THE BROKER REPRESENTS THE BUYER:

The broker becomes the buyer's agent by entering into an agreement to represent the buyer, usually through a written buyer representation agreement. A buyer's agent can assist the owner but does not represent the owner and must place the interests of the buyer first. The owner should not tell a buyer's agent anything the owner would not want the buyer to know because a buyer's agent must disclose to the buyer any material information known to the agent.

IF THE BROKER ACTS AS AN INTERMEDIARY:

A broker may act as an intermediary between the parties if the broker complies with The Texas Real Estate License Act. The broker must obtain the written consent of each party to the transaction to act as an intermediary. The written consent must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. The broker is required to treat each party honestly and fairly and to comply with The Texas Real Estate License Act. A broker who acts as an intermediary in a transaction:

- (1) shall treat all parties honestly;
- (2) may not disclose that the owner will accept a price less than the asking price unless authorized in writing to do so by the owner; buyer: and
- (3) may not disclose that the buyer will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer unless authorized in writing to do so by the buyer; and
- (4) may not disclose any confidential information or any information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose unless authorized in writing to disclose the information or required to do so by The Texas Real Estate License Act or a court order or if the information materially relates to the condition of the property. With the parties' consent, a broker acting as an intermediary between the parties may appoint a person who is licensed under The Texas Real Estate License Act and associated with the broker to communicate with and carry out instructions of one party and another person who is licensed under that Act and associated with the broker to communicate with and carry out instructions of the other party.

IF YOU CHOOSE TO HAVE A BROKER REPRESENT YOU:

You should enter into a written agreement with the broker that clearly establishes the broker's obligations and your obligations. The agreement should state how and by whom the broker will be paid. You have the right to choose the type of representation, if any, you wish to receive. Your payment of a fee to a broker does not necessarily establish that the broker represents you. If you have any questions regarding the duties and responsibilities of the broker, you should resolve those questions before proceeding.

 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.
