574 COMPANIES, 58M SQUARE FEET, $15B IN INVESTMENT: HILLWOOD'S ALLIANCE TEXAS BY THE NUMBERS

NEW REPORT SIZES UP ECONOMIC IMPACT OF MASSIVE PROJECT NORTH OF FORT WORTH

DALLAS
BUSINESS JOURNAL

In a state known for largesse, AllianceTexas has produced some truly astounding numbers in the past 30-plus years.

That includes an estimated $119.8 billion in economic impact since 1990, and $9.8 billion in 2023 alone, according to a survey presented March 6 by the project's master developer, Hillwood Development Company LLC.

AllianceTexas spans 27,000 acres — nearly the size of the city of San Francisco in California — and touches nine municipalities along the I-35W corridor, from Fort Worth to Denton, Haslet to Westlake. It also reaches into five independent school districts and two counties.

Below are a few more numbers to mind from the latest economic impact report, which was presented this week to Fort Worth City Council and prepared again by Insight Research Corp., a Dallas-based economic analysis firm.

- More than $344.6 million in property taxes were paid to cities, counties and school districts in 2023 alone; the final number is sure to grow, since not all taxing jurisdictions had been added to the analysis. Over its lifespan, the development has produced more than $3 billion in property taxes, according to the study.
- Nearly $15.3 billion in total investment has poured into AllianceTexas, with $14.2 billion of that from private sources, or about 93%. Much of the $1.1 billion in public funding has come in the form of federal and state grants.
- 574 companies call AllianceTexas home; 66,198 direct jobs have been created as well as 162,701 indirect jobs.
- 58 million square feet of industrial, office and retail space now stands in the development.

AllianceTexas has become “a corporate base to some of the world’s most iconic brands,” Hillwood President Mike Berry said in a statement. Those include BNSF, FedEx, Amazon, Meta, Charles Schwab, Fidelity Investments, Deloitte and UPS.

Alliance includes Perot Field Fort Worth Alliance Airport, the AllianceTexas-branded businesses and industrial parks, the Circle T Ranch residential community and the Alliance Town Center retail hub, plus other Hillwood recreational, retail and residential projects. It's also home to one of the largest intermodal facilities of class I freight railroad BNSF — this one spans more than 15 million square feet — while the AllianceTexas Mobility Innovation Zone is dedicated to researching next-generation logistics and supply chain technology such as autonomous trucking and drone delivery.

The announcement called attention to a lease of 1.18 million square feet last year when electrical wire and cable manufacturer Southwire took the entire Alliance Westport 25 building, where it should create 250 jobs, according to Hillwood.

Alliance “sets the standard in our region and nationally for providing companies with innovative resources and opportunities for growth while also creating an environment that offers an array of outstanding housing options and lifestyle amenities,” Fort Worth Mayor Mattie Parker stated.

Hillwood is a multi-faceted developer: its pipeline includes large DFW neighborhoods such as Pecan Square and Union Park. The company last year bought a block in downtown Fort Worth.

CONSTRUCTION MOVES AHEAD ON $271 MILLION HIGH SCHOOL IN EAGLE MOUNTAIN-SAGINAW ISD

Construction on Eagle Mountain-Saginaw ISD's fourth comprehensive high school is moving fast, according to district officials.

The school board received an update on the progress of Eagle Mountain High School in far north Fort Worth during their Oct. 23 board meeting. The campus is scheduled to open for the start of the 2024-25 school year.

"It is progressing, and it is on schedule. It's fast and furious," Chief Operations Officer Clete Welch told trustees.

A $524.7 million bond that voters approved in 2017 is funding construction. Initial estimates showed Eagle Mountain High, 3507 Bonds Ranch Road, costing about $200 million.

However, construction costs increased because of the COVID-19 pandemic and ongoing inflation, according to the district. The current cost for the school is more than $271 million, a district spokesperson said.

Administrators axed its planned replacement of Wayside Middle School in the 2017 bond to fund Eagle Mountain High School.

The replacement campus for Wayside Middle School is proposed in the $659.1 million bond voters are considering in the Nov. 7 election.

Eagle Mountain High's administration wing will likely be one of the first completed parts of the high school, Welch said. Interior lights, ceilings and other fixtures are being installed.

"When you're looking at administration, you're starting to see a finished product. It'll slowly progress toward the academic area of classrooms," Welch said.

Eagle Mountain High's gym still needs a roof, officials said. Large steel beams are being installed.

"They'll keep moving very quickly like that," Welch said.

When completed, the 636,000-square-foot Eagle Mountain High School will be the district's largest, according to VLK Architects, a firm with an office in Fort Worth that designed the campus.

The school's design incorporates natural light and features panoramic views of the surrounding landscape. A sky bridge connecting academic wings, outdoor dining areas, fine arts spaces and athletics will have a view of a natural pond and creek on the school's property.

A dock at the pond will allow it to be incorporated into science lessons. And art classrooms will have access to a covered outdoor deck.

Eagle Mountain-Saginaw ISD's other comprehensive high schools are Chisholm Trail, Boswell and Saginaw.

PASTURE LAND GIVES WAY TO 2,000 NEW HOMES NEAR FORT WORTH'S EAGLE MOUNTAIN LAKE

Fort Worth Star-Telegram

The Fort Worth City Council is poised sign off on a large new development in far north Fort Worth despite resident concerns about its impact on already overburdened roads.

The development will add 1,914 homes southeast of the intersection of Morris Dido Newark Road and Bonds Ranch Road.

It's adjacent to the proposed Eagle Mountain High School slated to open in August 2024.

Developer PMB Capital Investments originally planned to build roughly 2,100 homes but scaled back those plans after meeting with the city and neighbors, said Matt Mildren, a partner at PMB Capital Investments.

Residents were mainly concerned about the increase in traffic along Bonds Ranch Road, Mildren said. PMB has agreed to work with the city to build a road that would connect the development to North Saginaw Boulevard, he said.

This stretch of Bonds Ranch Road is a rural two-lane street bounded by prairie, horse ranches and the occasional housing development.

A segment of Bonds Ranch Road between U.S. 287 and Wagley Robertson Road is slated to be expanded to a four-lane thoroughfare as part of a 2022 bond package, but a similar expansion near the proposed development was not included.

"I think we all realize that growth is inevitable," said Julie LaQuey, who lives just south of the proposed development. "But we're concerned that the growth is too much, too quickly."

She pointed to railroad tracks running along North Saginaw Boulevard to the east and Eagle Mountain Lake to the west, which hampers residents trying to get in and out of their neighborhoods.

LaQuey also worried that rapid development is threatening the character of this part of the city, where residents are more used to open prairie than dense development.

She argued many moved to the area because of its scenic charm and connections to both agriculture and nature.

PASTURE LAND GIVES WAY TO 2,000 NEW HOMES NEAR FORT WORTH'S EAGLE MOUNTAIN LAKE

Fort Worth Star-Telegram

She described driving by a pasture off nearby Boat Club Road where longhorn cattle openly graze.

"We're called Cowtown for a reason, and if you eliminate that culture by developing all the agricultural land in an area, you eliminate the identity of the city," she said.

However, the city locked itself into developing something on the land back in 2001.

The city signed an agreement in October 2001 with the land's previous owner, Scott Communities Developers LP, to develop three residential units per acre on the land.

The city reaffirmed that agreement in 2008 when the land sold to Arizona-based developer Rio Claro, which is partnering with PMB Capital Investments on the project.

PMB has five other developments in the Fort Worth area. It owns the Ventana and Veale Ranch communities in southwest Fort Worth, the Bluffs at River East near Oakhurst, and the Bluestem and Reunion developments near Rhome.

Its homes range from $200,000 to $650,000, according to the company's website.

Mildren, the partner with the company, said prices in the Bonds Ranch development would be similar to other developments in the area.

Homes start at $391,990 in the Cibolo Hills development just east of the proposed site.

If the zoning is approved, construction could begin in early 2023 with the first homes ready to sell in early 2024, Mildren said.

COMMUNITY OF ABOUT 10,000 HOMES TAKES SHAPE NEAR FORT WORTH

THE REUNION COMMUNITY BETWEEN RHOME AND NEWARK PLAYS OFF OF THE RAPID GROWTH OF THE NORTHERN FORT WORTH AREA

The Dallas Morning News

After years of development, residents are finally calling a sprawling community on ranch land just north of Fort Worth their home.

Homebuilders have been working since the end of last year on homes in Reunion, a 3,150-acre community by Dallas-based real estate investment and development company PMB Capital Investments.

Reunion is part of the 3,600-acre site known as Rolling V Ranch in Wise County, near the intersection of State Highway 114 and U.S. Highway 287. Reunion will eventually have about 10,000 home sites, along with commercial properties such as apartments, retail and industrial sites. The developer handed off the first 336 home sites near Rhome to homebuilders in December.

"Things are really shaping up nice," PMB Capital co-founder and principal Peter Pincoffs said in an interview.

The area surrounding Highway 114 and U.S. 287 and the upper end of Interstate 35W produces some of the highest levels of new home construction starts and sales in Dallas-Fort Worth, according to housing market consultant Ted Wilson of Dallas-based Residential Strategies.

"New home communities in the area have seen strong demand as families are attracted by the excellent Northwest ISD," Wilson said.

The Reunion site is about 25 miles northwest of downtown Fort Worth and 13 miles west of Perot Field Fort Worth Alliance Airport.

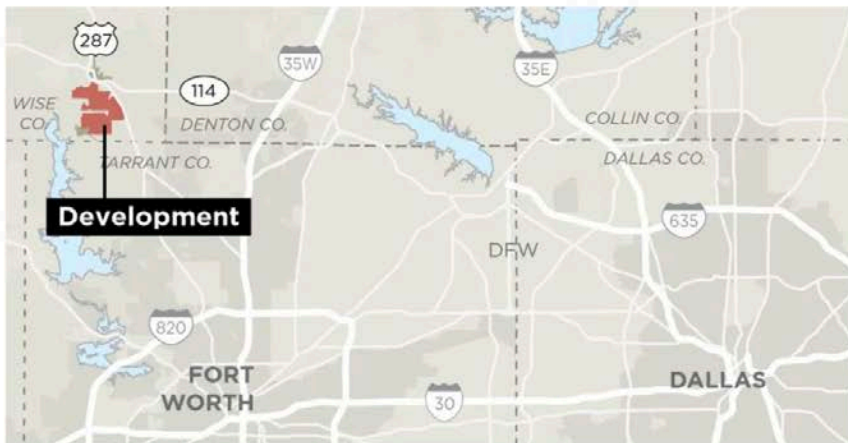

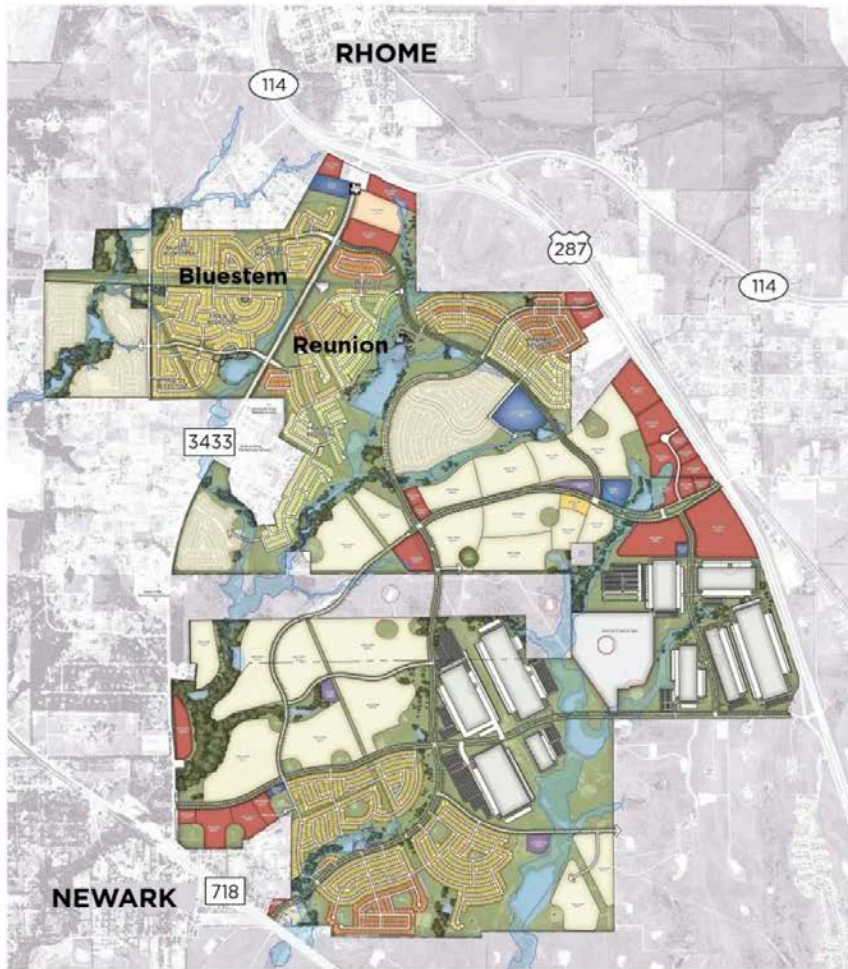

"If you look at a map of all of the development either existing or underway along 287 in particular, this is really the natural next step," Pincoffs said. "Development is to our doorstep, and this is just a natural extension. And so there's tons of demand."

The slate of builders in the first phase includes American Legend Homes, Perry Homes and UnionMain Homes. Home sites range from 40-foot-wide lots for cottage-style homes to 70-foot-wide estate lots, with prices that will span from about the high $300,000s to the $700,000s, according to Pincoffs.

Community of About 10,000 Homes Takes Shape Near Fort Worth

The Dallas Morning News

The first phase's amenities are under construction. They include a 20-acre lake for fishing, sports fields, playgrounds, parks and walking trails. An amenity center will have a clubhouse, resort-style pool and pavilion, and will host concerts, classes and other events.

Additionally, Pincoffs said site work will begin within the next six to 12 months on 300 more lots on the north end of the project and 600 lots on the south side near Newark. The new homes on the north side will feature the same builders as the first phase, with builders for the other sites yet to be announced.

In October, The Dallas Morning News reported that D.R. Horton had started construction of homes at Bluestem, a 500-acre project across FM 3433 from Reunion that will have 1,200 single-family home lots.

So far, D.R. Horton has started or completed more than half of the homes in the first phase of 236 home sites in Bluestem, Pincoffs said. PMB Capital is starting construction of the next 270 lots of that community, with homes in that section expected to start rising within the next year.

FORT WORTH PUTS $26 MILLION TOWARD ROAD IMPROVEMENTS, LANE ADDITIONS

Fort Worth City Council members earmarked $26 million in funding for 11 growth-related, high-capacity road projects during their Jan. 14 meeting.

Fourth on the list with $2.8 million in new funding is the project to improve WJ Boaz and West Half roads in northwest Fort Worth. The project, which already has $28.4 million in funding, will widen WJ Boaz to four lanes from Boat Club Road (FM 1220) to Elkins School Road. New street lights, sidewalks, a bike and pedestrian path, drainage improvements and water relocation are planned. The developer has requested a temporary road closure for the project.

Council members also dedicated $2.6 million for Wagley Robertson Road, which will be improved from Quicksilver Court to Coneflower Trail in northwest Fort Worth. The project has $25.3 million in funding already.

Another $2 million will go toward Avondale Haslet Road improvements in far northwest Fort Worth. The $72.6 million project has $54.4 million in existing funding from Fort Worth and the Tarrant County Commissioners Court through a 2021 transportation bond program.

A 2-mile portion of Avondale Haslet Road from Willow Creek Drive to the Fort Worth city limits to the east will be reconstructed from two lanes to four lanes to reduce congestion and improve mobility. Other improvements include new curb and gutters, stormwater drainage, and a pedestrian and bike lane. The city said motorists should expect contractors to relocate multiple utilities from January through fall 2025.

About $1.6 million will go to north Fort Worth's Heritage Trace Parkway phase 1 project, which already has $7.4 million in funding. That project, which includes BNSF Railway and the North Central Texas Council of Governments, will remove a barrier to mobility by constructing a new bridge on Heritage Trace Parkway over the BNSF railroad line in north Fort Worth.

The city said the project will be the first major step to the ultimate build-out of the Heritage Trace Parkway and help connect 1,000 homes to Interstate 35W, U.S Highway 377 and Trinity Metro's Northside station.

Park Vista, which has $6.8 million in existing funds, will receive an additional $690,000 for its second phase, which calls for expanding the road from two lanes to a divided four-lane road with a median from Keller Haslet Road to Timberland Boulevard in far northeast Fort Worth. Other improvements include drainage, street lights and bigger sidewalks — work that is underway and will continue through summer 2025.

The initial phase of the project improved the Park Vista-Keller Haslet intersection and added a new traffic signal and left turn lanes along Keller Haslet.

Trinity Boulevard, a major east-west road in far east Fort Worth, has $8.7 million in funds for its second round of road improvements. The city will add $480,000. Phase 2 work includes a four-lane divided road from Salado Trail to Thames Trail with drainage improvements, new trails, and new water and sewer lines.

Water line construction will continue until March, resulting in the closure of the Seguin Trail intersection. Road construction will begin after the water line is completed.

DISCLAIMER

APPROVED BY THE TEXAS REAL ESTATE COMMISSION FOR VOLUNTARY USE.

TEXAS LAW REQUIRES ALL REAL ESTATE LICENSEES TO GIVE THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION ABOUT BROKERAGE SERVICES TO PROSPECTIVE BUYERS, TENANTS, SELLERS AND LANDLORDS. (01A TREC NO. OP-K)

INFORMATION ABOUT BROKERAGE SERVICES:

Before working with a real estate broker, you should know that the duties of a broker depend on whom the broker represents. If you are a prospective seller or landlord (owner) or a prospective buyer or tenant (buyer), you should know that the broker who lists the property for sale or lease is the owner's agent. A broker who acts as a subagent represents the owner in cooperation with the listing broker. A broker who acts as a buyer's agent represents the buyer. A broker may act as an intermediary between the parties if the parties consent in writing. A broker can assist you in locating a property, preparing a contract or lease, or obtaining financing without representing you. A broker is obligated by law to treat you honestly.

IF THE BROKER REPRESENTS THE OWNER:

The broker becomes the owner's agent by entering into an agreement with the owner, usually through a written - listing agreement, or by agreeing to act as a subagent by accepting an offer of subagency from the listing broker. A subagent may work in a different real estate office. A listing broker or subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first. The buyer should not tell the owner's agent anything the buyer would not want the owner to know because an owner's agent must disclose to the owner any material information known to the agent.

IF THE BROKER REPRESENTS THE BUYER:

The broker becomes the buyer's agent by entering into an agreement to represent the buyer, usually through a written buyer representation agreement. A buyer's agent can assist the owner but does not represent the owner and must place the interests of the buyer first. The owner should not tell a buyer's agent anything the owner would not want the buyer to know because a buyer's agent must disclose to the buyer any material information known to the agent.

IF THE BROKER ACTS AS AN INTERMEDIARY:

A broker may act as an intermediary between the parties if the broker complies with The Texas Real Estate License Act. The broker must obtain the written consent of each party to the transaction to act as an intermediary. The written consent must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. The broker is required to treat each party honestly and fairly and to comply with The Texas Real Estate License Act. A broker who acts as an intermediary in a transaction:

- (1) shall treat all parties honestly;
- (2) may not disclose that the owner will accept a price less than the asking price unless authorized in writing to do so by the owner; buyer: and
- (3) may not disclose that the buyer will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer unless authorized in writing to do so by the buyer; and
- (4) may not disclose any confidential information or any information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose unless authorized in writing to disclose the information or required to do so by The Texas Real Estate License Act or a court order or if the information materially relates to the condition of the property. With the parties' consent, a broker acting as an intermediary between the parties may appoint a person who is licensed under The Texas Real Estate License Act and associated with the broker to communicate with and carry out instructions of one party and another person who is licensed under that Act and associated with the broker to communicate with and carry out instructions of the other party.

IF YOU CHOOSE TO HAVE A BROKER REPRESENT YOU:

You should enter into a written agreement with the broker that clearly establishes the broker's obligations and your obligations. The agreement should state how and by whom the broker will be paid. You have the right to choose the type of representation, if any, you wish to receive. Your payment of a fee to a broker does not necessarily establish that the broker represents you. If you have any questions regarding the duties and responsibilities of the broker, you should resolve those questions before proceeding.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
  - o that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
  - o that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
  - o any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
